

Northeast Integrated Health

Behavioral, Emotional & Physical Well-Being

Psychiatric Urgent Care Clinic

Same-Day Psychiatric Services

Walk-ins welcome.

Who We Serve:

Adults experiencing symptoms like:

- Depression
- Anxiety
- Panic attacks
- Disturbing Thoughts
- Suicidal Thoughts
- Acute grief reactions
- Trouble managing daily activities

Please see your primary care doctor or go to the Emergency Room if experiencing a medical issue

Services:

- Crisis Intervention
- Medication Reviews
- Nursing Assessments / Injections
- Psychiatric Evaluations
- Peer Support
- Non-ER transport

Payment: Medicaid, Medicare and most commercial insurance accepted.

Northeast Integrated Health
12800 East Warren
Detroit, MI 48215
313-824-5623

Hours:
Monday – Friday 9am – 9pm
Saturday 9am – 1pm

NIHDetroit.org

Northeast Integrated Health

Behavioral, Emotional & Physical Well-Being

Know Before You Go

If you have questions about whether the Psychiatric Urgent Care Clinic is right for you, please call us at 313-824-5623.

HOSPITAL

911

Visit a Hospital Emergency Room or call 911 for serious or life-threatening conditions

- Experiencing extreme agitation and refusing treatment of mental health symptoms
- Individual needs medical treatment to stabilize after self-harm has occurred
- Individual is impaired or intoxicated due to substance use

URGENT CARE

313-824-5623

Visit NIH Psychiatric Urgent Care Clinic

- Suffering from moderate to severe psychiatric symptoms, such as depression or anxiety, that need immediate attention
- Daily activities are a struggle
- Symptoms are likely to get worse without treatment
- Individual is willing to get help and open to receiving services

OUTPATIENT

313-308-1400

Call NIH for an Outpatient appointment

- Psychiatric symptoms are mild to moderate
- Daily activities are manageable
- Able to wait for a scheduled appointment
- Individual has basic support systems in place